- Overcome addiction
- Heal your relationships
- Find true purpose in life

The 12 Steps

The 12 Steps are a set of principles that guide you through the recovery process. Each step is designed to help you grow in your relationship with God, yourself, and others. The 12 Steps are:

1. We admitted we were powerless over our addiction and that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. We came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. We made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. We humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. We made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. We made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. We continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. We sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God, as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.

12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to others, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

How the 12 Steps Work

The 12 Steps work by helping you to:

- Admit your powerlessness over addiction. This is the first step to recovery. You must recognize that you cannot control your addiction on your own. You need help from a Power greater than yourself.
- Develop a relationship with God. God is the source of all strength and healing. As you grow in your relationship with Him, you will find the power to overcome your addiction.
- Change your thinking and behavior. The 12 Steps will help you to identify the negative thoughts and behaviors that contribute to your addiction. You will learn how to change these thoughts and behaviors so that you can live a healthy and productive life.
- Make amends for the harm you have caused. Addiction can damage your relationships with your family, friends, and co-workers. The 12 Steps will help you to make amends for the harm you have caused and to rebuild these relationships.
- Carry the message of recovery to others. As you recover from addiction, you will be able to help others who are struggling with the same disease. Sharing your story can give hope to others and help them to find their own path to recovery.

Benefits of the 12 Steps

The 12 Steps can help you to achieve:

- Freedom from addiction
- Improved relationships
- Increased self-esteem
- A sense of purpose
- A closer relationship with God
