In her groundbreaking book, The Three Waves of Volunteers and the New Earth, Dolores Cannon explores the extraordinary role that volunteers from other dimensions are playing in the evolution of humanity.

Cannon, a renowned hypnotherapist and spiritual regressionist, has conducted thousands of sessions with individuals who have claimed to have lived past lives as volunteers on Earth. These volunteers, she says, come from a variety of different star systems and have a wide range of backgrounds and experiences.

According to Cannon, the volunteers have been coming to Earth in three distinct waves.

The First Wave of volunteers arrived on Earth in the early days of human history. They were here to help humans develop their physical and emotional bodies.

The Second Wave of volunteers arrived in the 19th and 20th centuries. They were here to help humans develop their mental and spiritual bodies.

The Third Wave of volunteers is currently arriving on Earth. They are here to help humans make the transition to a new era of peace and prosperity.

Cannon says that the volunteers are here to help us create a new Earth, a world that is based on love, compassion, and understanding. They are here to help us to heal our wounds, to overcome our fears, and to reach our full potential.

The Three Waves of Volunteers and the New Earth is a powerful and inspiring book that offers a unique perspective on the evolution of humanity. Cannon's work provides a wealth of information about the volunteers, their mission, and the changes that are taking place on Earth.

The Three Waves of Volunteers

The First Wave of volunteers arrived on Earth in the early days of human history. They were here to help humans develop their physical and emotional bodies. These volunteers were often incarnated into difficult circumstances, such as poverty, war, and disease. They faced many challenges, but they also learned a great deal about human nature.

The Second Wave of volunteers arrived in the 19th and 20th centuries. They were here to help humans develop their mental and spiritual bodies. These volunteers were often incarnated into more fortunate circumstances, such as wealth, education, and opportunity. They were able to make a significant contribution to the world through their work in science, art, and literature.

The Third Wave of volunteers is currently arriving on Earth. They are here to help humans make the transition to a new era of peace and prosperity. These volunteers are often incarnated into highly sensitive and intuitive individuals. They are here to help us to heal our wounds, to overcome our fears, and to reach our full potential.

The New Earth

The New Earth is a world that is based on love, compassion, and understanding. It is a world where all beings are free to express themselves and to live in peace and harmony.

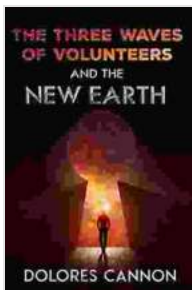

The New Earth is not a utopia. It is a world that is still in progress. There are still challenges to be faced, but the volunteers are here to help us overcome them.

The New Earth is a world that is worth fighting for. It is a world that is worth creating. And it is a world that we can all help to bring into being.

The Three Waves of Volunteers and the New Earth is a book that offers a profound and inspiring message of hope. Cannon's work provides a wealth of information about the volunteers, their mission, and the changes that are taking place on Earth.

The volunteers are here to help us create a new Earth, a world that is based on love, compassion, and understanding. They are here to help us to heal our wounds, to overcome our fears, and to reach our full potential.

Let us embrace the volunteers and their message of hope. Let us work together to create a new Earth, a world that is worthy of our dreams.
